PRAYER

When we were very young, our parents taught us how to make the Sign of the Cross, and to then say our prayers. Most likely, we would then pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen! Many times, this is how we would start our prayers and then continue praying for more specific things like safe travels, family member(s) who might be sick or are going to have an operation, and for many other needs. This is all very good and necessary!

In past bulletins, I have shared the details of formal prayers we call Liturgy of Hours. At this time, I will conclude with a brief description of the other parts of the Liturgy of Hours.

Following Morning Prayer is Mid-Morning Prayer, which is prayed at 9:00 AM. This prayer consists of an Introduction, Hymn, Psalms--for example: (Psalm 118), (Psalm 12), (Psalm 13), and other additional complementary Psalms like (Psalm 119), (Psalm 120), and (Psalm 121), a Sacred Scripture Passage is read, and then Closing Prayer.

Mid-Day Prayer is prayed at 12:00 NOON. There is an Introduction, Hymn, Psalms of the day, such as the ones listed above, a Scripture Reading and Closing Prayer.

Afternoon Prayer is prayed at 3:00 PM. This is the same structure of prayer as the above Mid-Day Prayer.

Vespers (Evening Prayer) is prayed at 6:00 PM. This prayer has the same order and structure to it as in the Morning Prayer, with the Introduction, Hymn, Psalms, Psalm Prayers, Sacred Scripture Reading, Responsory to the Reading, Canticle Magnificat, Intercessions, Our Father, Closing Prayer, and Blessing.

Compline (Night Prayer) is prayed at 9:00 PM. This is the final Liturgy of Hours prayer of each day. Its parts are the Introduction, Examination of Conscience, and the Confidior is prayed.

All of these Liturgy of Hours Prayers can be downloaded to your smart phone and computer by getting the Divine Office Audio app and/or the Laudate app.

These prayers can be prayed by all of us, clergy and laity each day. A shorter version of Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer can also be found in our Breaking Bread Hymnals, that we have in the Church.

Finally, prayer is very personal to all of us as we turn to God each day and ask Him for the strength and help to do our responsibilities before us. And even more so, prayer is growing in our personal relationship with Jesus our Lord. Then, when we come to Mass with other people, we can pray and worship together our Lord, Whom we have had a conversation with the week before, and had deepened our relationship with Him.

God Bless, Father Mark
